

Cornell ILR High Road Fellows in Buffalo Scenes from Summer 2010

With Portrait of Grover Cleveland as Mayor of Buffalo
...and Lou Jean

Annie Finn, Julia Burgdorf, Elaina Mulé, Thom Barnes, JC
Tretter, Kwan Park, Aaron Klein, Zach Smith, Sam Bordia
In City Hall, Buffalo, New York

On Seneca Street in South Buffalo with staff of Assemblyman Mark Schroeder and Regina Duffey Morevek, as Mike Dolce joins the fellows and (with Red Jacket) on walking tour of Seneca Street development projects

At Future Green on Buffalo's East Side with Legislator Maria Whyte and Professor Henry Taylor

With Greg Stevens, of Buffalo Riverwight, inside a grain elevator on Buffalo River

On the river boat tour

at The Swannie House
...with Proprietor Tim

At Frank Lloyd Wright's Darwin Martin House

And looking through the Ben Perrone exhibit at the Burchfield Penney Art Center

Looking back on Buffalo Summer 2010

Where the High Road Runs Through the City
...and making a difference is more than a slogan.

Cornell University ILR sponsors High Road Fellowships by paying ILR students to work with organizations engaged in community-based economic development in Buffalo for two months each summer. The 2011 program has research and service learning opportunities available for up to 15 students.

For more information contact

Lou Jean Fleron ljf8@cornell.edu 716.852.4191 Ext. 118

Cornell University
ILR School

